

Do you have a story or news article relating to the pipeline of healthcare? Maybe you know of grants or scholarships for students interested in a healthcare career. Are you putting together an event relating to the healthcare industry or continuing education for various healthcare professions?

If so, we encourage you to tell us about it! We are always looking for current story ideas and we know we could not possibly cover this state without help from our readers.

Send an email to us at the Center of Excellence for Allied Health coe@yvcc.edu with the subject line “Story Idea”. In the body of the email, describe your news/event/conference/ grant/scholarship in detail and let us know where we can find more information. All submissions are subject to verification before release.

Be sure to place “Story Idea” in the subject line of your email!!
